Educator To Retire After Teaching In Same Room 24 Years

Room No. 115 at Louisville Male High School or rather Louisville Male and Girls High School as it is to be known in the future—will assume a different look in September after 24 years.

One important link in the long chain of events that have taken place in that particular classroom will be missing.

The link is Claude Ed Carmack, who is retiring next month as a Louisville teacher. He has taught English in the same room since 1928.

Although he has reached the compulsory retiring age of 70, he says he will be retiring only because "if anything, I've got to work more, with a daughter in high school and one in college."

Miss Peggy Lois Carmack, 20, is a junior at the University of Kentucky and Miss Martha Beuchamp, 15, is a junior at Eastern High, Middletown.

Carmack has a 194-acre farm on Boone Creek, 13 miles from Lexington and Lyndon, to which he refers as his gymnasium. He does most of the work, including planting 2,200 strawberry plants.

OUR DEMOCRACY

by Mat

NOSE TO THE GRINDSTONE

IT MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE WHETHER YOUR NOSE IS HELD TO THE GRINDSTONE: BY THE IRON HAND OF DESPOTISM OR BY YOUR INDIVIDUAL AMBITION AND WILL TO WORK... THE DIFFERENCE IS FREEDOM.

BUT EVEN A FREE PEOPLE CAN'T ESCAPE NOSE-TO-THE-GRINDSTONE TASKS. THE PIONEERS WHO BUILT OUR DEMOCRACY WERE NOT THAT THE JOE MEATY PLUMPY OF GRINDING LAGS—AND DID IT WILLINGLY, BECAUSE THEY HAD A VISION OF THE REWARDS.

AND THOUGH THERE ARE SOME GRINDING LAGS IN WHICH A FREE ECONOMY EXCELS, IT IS STILL NOSE-TO-THE-GRINDSTONE TOOL THAT TRANSLATES THESE QUALITIES INTO AMERICA'S PRODUCTIVE POWER AND NOSE-TO-THE-GRINDSTONE THIRST THAT SUSTAINS NATIONAL AND FAMILY SECURITY THROUGH LIFE INSURANCE AND SAVINGS.

By Mrs. J. H. Shively Bro. Mantiply had the devotional for the Sunday School day and the last that has ever been given. His subject was, "A Christian Home." He brought out quite plainly the difference in a Christian Home and one where God is not recognized. At the close of his very helpful remarks, a quartette sang very softly, "Home, Sweet Home" as a prayer meditation.
Bro. Robert Porter filled his regular appointment Sunday to a very appreciative audience.

Frederick with the serving.

Frederick had a very spiritual Sermon subject, "The Gentleness of God."

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Jones attended the Jackson Day Dinner Saturday night at the Seaboard and heard the powerful and convincing address by V. President, Alben Barkley. Many heard him by T.V. and radio.

Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Thompson, Mrs.
L. Jones and Mrs. Calvin Hart were on the sick list.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hindle and Mrs. C. R. Hart were dinner guests of Mrs. Cook and Mrs.
Shively, Thursday.

So glad to have Mrs. Weber, of Buchel, worship with us Sunday, also glad to have Mrs. Ollis and Brenda Kay back.

Our good friends, the Sutherland's made us a brief visit Friday night. Mrs. Sutherland is having eye trouble, but we hope it may soon be corrected.

The monthly meeting of the Home Missionary Circle was held in the hospital home of Mr. and Mrs. Fielden Frederick, Tuesday. Ladies pieced and cut quilt blocks in the morning and at noon a most excellent meal was served. A pretty birthday cake graced the table in honor of Mrs.
Henry Lutz who also received some nice gifts. Mrs. O. J. Stiv-ers prepared the most loaf which was a new recipe and very delicious, and also assisted Mrs.

Well folks, regardless of the weather, summer must be right around the corner for my whistling here is again at our door and the children are all in their undies.

Regardless of the bad weather Sunday, we had a full house at church services and 103 in Sunday School. Brother Schriner's sermons got better each time.
If we all could always keep in mind to put the Lord first in all our undertakings how much better and happier we all would be.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. W. Reader and family and Mr. and Mrs. Byron B.
Broder and daughter, Glenn, members of Buchel Church of Christ, drove to the Children's Home at Sellersburg, Ind., Sunday after church. They took articles of clothing and bed spreads for the children.

All the children were fine and happy.
Mr. and Mrs. Byron Reader daughter, Glenn, had 6 o'clock dinner and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. James Reader and family at Newburg, Monday.

There will be a mass meeting and Decoration Day at Penn Run Sunday, May 25. The Rev. John T. Glenn will speak at 3 o'clock and there will be other speakers also. Every body come especially by the folks who have loved ones buried there. This place of rest is beautiful and it takes hard work and money to keep it this way. Give accordingly, it is one of our duties.

Mrs. Lillian Snyder's mother, Mrs. Sophie Draucher is going to spend the summer with her.
Mr. Mark Snyder is fine. He is drilling wells all over the place.
Graig Pugsy Timmins, who has been stationed at the Naval Hospital in Jacksonville, Fla., has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cass L. Tim-mins, for the last 14 days. She is enroute to the Naval Hospital at Chelsea, Mass.

Little Jimmy Huber, 4 years old, at Smyrna Road, jumped off a perch and broke his leg. He was taken to the hospital last Friday night and is in a cast from the hip down, will be there for six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Beck celebrated their anniversary last Thursday evening. He took her out to dinner.

E. P. Toulmin & Son, Montgomery, Alabama, cattlemen, proved it pays to feed Purina Range Checkers to steers on a split test with 236 steers. Checkered cattle went to market heavier, made better slaughter grades than steers fed pasture only.

Checkered cattle maintained grade—gained 51 lbs. more per head in 127-day test... were worth more money, too!

Cattle getting no supplement lost grade...

gained less weight.

Here's proof it pays to feed Purina Range Checkers on pasture. Next time you're in town, ask your Purina Dealer about Range Checkers.

HOMEMAKER CLUBS

ROUTT

Mrs. Lee Baskett was hostess to the Routt Homemakers Club, May 14. Thirteen members answered roll call. We also had three visitors.

A work day was set aside in August for sewing for needy children.

Mrs. Baskett gave a very interesting lesson on posture and relaxation from which I am sure we will all benefit.

Mrs. Ralph Baskett, recreation leader, presented a tree quiz. Mrs. Baskett was the winner.

One of our members, Mrs. William Blankenbaker has returned home from the Kentucky Baptist Hospital where she underwent an operation. It will be nice to have her back with us again.

We meet June 4 at the home of Mrs. Philip Halblett with Mrs. Archie Tennill as co-hostess.

Mrs. P. A. Halblett, publicity chairman.

OKOLONA

Mrs. Ernest Edwards, president, opened the meeting of the Okolona Homemakers Club, Friday, May 16, at the home of Mrs. W. B. Gourley on Peyton Court.

Mrs. E. Berger was co-hostess.

Mrs. T. T. Knight read the devotional. Mrs. Gourley presented the club with a fine lesson on "Good Grooming" such as posture, walking and dressing themselves in a graceful manner. There were 16 members present, and 16 hand-books which is very fine.

A hearty welcome was given Mrs. Hitt and Mrs. Lester who hope to become members of our club, in the near future.

There will be a "Towel Work Day" at the home of Mrs. D. A. Bates Thursday morning, May 22, a very progressive project indeed.

Pictures were taken of the display in Hardy's Food Store in Okolona during Home Demonstration Week—We are grateful to the members who took part in this exhibit.

Mrs. John Fackert will be hostess at home on Minnie's Lane, Friday, June 13, with the assistance of Mrs. T. T. Knight as the co-hostess.

Mrs. Chester I. Holby, publicity chairman.

FAIRMOUNT

The Fairmount Homemakers Club held its meeting May 20 at the home of Mrs. Sam Seebold near Fern Creek. Seventeen members were present.

Mrs. Holby gave the devotional, reading the first seven verses of the 57th psalm and all repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The major project is "Good Grooming" given by Mrs. Orville Miller and Mrs. Vernon Smith, was graciously enjoyed and well given.

At 12 o'clock a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The dessert consisted of home-grown strawberries and homemade cakes.

A nominating committee was chosen to recommend new officers for the ensuing year starting September 16. Next meeting will be held June 17, at the home of Mrs. Robert Mason. The major project will be "Posture Today."

Mrs. Wilson Reynolds, a member of the club, was awarded a number of prizes at the floral show sponsored by the Buechel Woman's Club at Bashford Manor.

Two prizes for flower arrangements were won by Mrs. Reynolds. One blue and white ribbon, one blue, red and white ribbon.

Mrs. Gertrude Farmer, publicity chairman.

WRIGHT VIEW

The Wright View Homemakers met May 14 with Mrs. Zuma Sims on Preston Highway. Nineteen members were present.

The Homemakers Creed was read in unison and a prayer by Mrs. E. B. Curtis. Plans were made to go to the Old Folks' Home at Jeffersonton May 21, and take them a treat of ice cream, cake and candy and have a program.

Mrs. Charles Gostley appointed a committee of four to get a program prepared for the second Saturday of July to speak over the radio. Mrs. Pfeiffer gave the consumers information. Mrs. Lusk, the reading lesson; Mrs. Reeves, citizenship; Mrs. Br. lande, and Mrs. Blase, a good lesson on "Posture."

We voted on what we would like to have for next year's program. A nominating committee will present the names of nominees at our June meeting. This meeting will be held the second Wednesday with Mrs. C. L. Timmins—Mrs. Charles Gostley, publicity chairman.

LOOK AT THE BOOK

DR. B. B. JONES, GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA

THE BIBLE OF THE FUTURE

That Jesus is the Son of God can be proved in various ways. When John the Baptist, in prison and full of discouragement, sent his disciples to Christ saying, "Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?" (Matthew 11:3), our Lord neither upbraided John's doubts nor asserted His deity. He instructed them to stay that day and observe, and in the evening He sent them home to John with the words, "Go and show John again those things which ye do hear and see. The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them" (Matthew 11:4-5). Who He is, is proved by what He did, and His deity is proved in His works. As the God of nature, nature showed Him: winds ceased, and waves were calmed; a tree died at His command. He brought life to the dead, and healed all manner of diseases.

The Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, is proved by the Scriptures. In the twenty-third verse of the eighth chapter of John, it is told that Paul "mightily convinced the Jews, and that they sought to slay him; but he escaped out of their hands, and went to Iconium."

Boys Estate Team Wins $500 on TV "Strike It Rich"

Two boys from the Kentucky Boys Estate, Westport Road, and Pewee Rest, of Louisville, captured a first-place prize in the "Strike It Rich" television program and as the result the estate is $500 richer.

The trio had correctly answered three questions Wednesday night when the time ran out. They returned on the Thursday morning program and answered the final two questions.

Members of the Boys Estate on the program were Leslie Hawthorne, 16, a junior Rotarian, and Bruce Browning, 15. Hawthorne was selected to represent the home on the basis of 4-H activities and Browning for scholarship.

The money is to be used in the purchase of a new tractor to help in farm work at the 12-acre estate.

USDA Accepts New Soil Insecticide Described as Effective Against Rootworms

Growners of corn, peanuts, sugar beets, sugar cane, small grains and similar crops may get economical control of soil insects with Aldrin, a new insecticide.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture recently accepted the new chemical for registration for use against soil insects, grubs, harmful worms and other burrowing pests following proof of its effectiveness by many experiment stations.

It is described as being particularly effective against rootworms, wireworms, and white grubs — and is far milder than the poisons needed in previous knock treatments. Damage to crops by above-ground insects is easily seen, and until recently has been the primary concern of the farmer. But damage to plant roots by soil insects, while not so readily recognized, is often more insidious and serious.

The new insecticide may be applied by any method available to the average farmer; by mixing with starter fertilizer, with manure, or by broadcasting a mixture on the surface and then tilling it in. Treatments vary from a few ounces up to three pounds or so per acre, depending on what pests are being fought, and on other factors. Farmers should obtain competent advice from their dealers before using the new product.

While Aldrin's approval as a soil insecticide is new, it has been known for several years as a highly efficient and inexpensive surface insecticide.

Specialists Predict Egg Prices to Remain High

Poultry specialists predict egg prices will remain high during the winter of 1952 and outline a few pointers for increased production.

They urge use of an all-pullet flock. Pullet lay more eggs than old hens and a good pullet flock coming into production this fall will give you the advantage of usual good fall egg prices.

Dry quarters will mean more eggs and will prevent waste of feed, so good insulation and ventilation are important. A balanced ration will save food. Prompt removal of birds that are not producing will save feed and increase profits. Control lice, mites and bugs to improve the health of birds.

Using light to provide a 13 to 14 hour winter day for hens is a cheap way to increase production. Keep nests clean, provide plenty of water and gather eggs three times a day to avoid broken and dirty eggs and, thus, market a better product.

Walk Through Gate

Here is the answer for a walk through gate for a barbed wire fence. Three extra posts, a few boards and two hours of your time are the essential ingredients for a gate that will roll across the top of the place of two braces. Located at convenient points on your farm this type of gate will save time and prevent that business of getting down on the ground and rolling under barbed wire.

straw, or crushed with sugar.
If you prefer sirup, fill containers with berries and cover with a chilled sirup made by dissolving four and three-fourths cups sugar in 4 cups water.
Leave 1 inch headspace for sirup, 1 inch for quarts. Seal and freeze at once.

For berries with dry sugar—Food specialists have found the following method best: Place whole or sliced berries in a bowl.
Add 3/4 cup sugar per quart of cupped berries and mix thoroughly by lifting over and over, carefully without crushing. Allow to stand until the sugar has mostly dissolved. Fill containers, leaving 1/2 inch headspace for sirup, 1 inch for quarts. Seal and freeze.

For the "no sugar" method, simply pack well ripened red berries, preferably whole, in containers leaving 1/2 inch head-space for sirup, 1 inch for quarts.
Seal and freeze. In recent tests reported by the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics, they found that "before and after storage for 10 months at zero degrees F., frozen berries packed in 1 part sugar to 4 parts fruit by weight had the highest score for natural flavor and absence of off-flavor. Berries stored 10 months without sweet-ening rated good when sugar was added just before serving, compared favorably with those packed with sugar.

When you have lots of berries, you may want a few packages of crushed or crushed. Crush or press berries through sieve, add two-thirds cup sugar per quart and mix well. Fill containers leaving 1/2 inch headspace for sirup, 1 inch for quarts. Seal and freeze.

Containers are important—should certainly be moisture-proof material. Heavily waxed cartons may be used, but rigid or pliable plastic, glass, or metal are probably preferred.
Glass jars with sloping sides for easy removal of the frozen product later are better than regular jars made for canning. One disadvantage of glass is the possibility of leakage during handling while in storage. Any carton that can be closely stacked for storage is economical in use of freezer space. Though the original cost of packages that can be used over and over is greater than for special paper cartons, they do have the advantage of being usable for several years when properly cared for.

Next week, watch "Be Market-wise" for preserving directions,

Lockers or Making of Jams, Jell-

FOR ECONOMY THROUGH SIMPLICITY

HOUSE PLAN NO. 40

A Southern farm and livable house built by our Farm and Ranch House Plan No. 5140 were just made for each other.

This house will be especially pleasant during a scorching summer. Each room is either a corner room or first cousin to one, so there will be lots of light and ventilation. The breezeway, of course, will be cool even on the hottest days. It can be left open, screened, or provided with windows. Either way is attractive.

There is ample room in the kitchen for serving family meals and for making a compact arrangement of your freezer chest, laundry equipment, and water space heater in the same place.

The bath is arranged near the back entrance so that field hands may wash up before going to other sections of the house.

There are closets galore in the bedrooms, a large linen closet in the hall, and ample space for linen in the bathroom. Also, there is convenient storage space in the garage for seasonal items, or in items used only occasionally.

The plans call for a double fire-placing opening into both the dining and living areas. However, you could have a conventional fireplace instead, or a laundry equipment, and water

space heater in the same place.

If you prefer a basement with a central heating unit we suggest that the entrance be arranged on the breezeway and the central put in the basement.

This house has been designed for masonry construction but will be equally attractive in conventional frame. The plans incorporate all of the economy measures that can be applied to simple construction. The straight lines and simplicity of the roof mean a minimum of cost per square foot of floor area.

You can obtain blueprints for this, The Jeffersonian Farm and Ranch House Plan No. 5140 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, Farm and Ranch—

64, Nashville, Tenn. Order by prints are adequate for any farm handy with tools.

HIGH QUALITY ROUGHAGE NEEDED FOR DAIRY CATTLE

A program of high quality hay and pasture production should be the aim of every dairyman because quality roughage is the foundation of any efficient dairy program. Low quality roughage will not get the same kind of production dairymen get when feeding top quality second or third cutting alfalfa hay and good corn silage.

In order to get the highest possible profit from good dairy herds, dairymen need to feed grain even with the highest quality roughage. If a 1000 pound cow consumes 23 pounds of the best hay and 28 pounds of good corn silage, she will have only enough TDN for body maintenance and to produce about 35 pounds of milk.

As the quality of roughage goes down, the amount the cow consumes decreases and the nutritive value is not as good, so the amount of grain ration should be increased. A good producing cow just won't consume enough average or poor quality roughage to give her the TDN needed; therefore, she must be fed enough of a balanced grain ration to meet her needs or she will draw on body reserves to produce milk.

Instead of varying the protein content of the grain ration with different quality of roughages, keep the grain ration at not over 16 1/2 to 18% protein and increase or decrease the amount according to the quality of roughage. When poor quality roughages are fed, total net energy limits production before protein becomes deficient.

Don't let a poor roughage program rob you of profits from the afternoon milk. Improve your roughage program and feed a balanced grain ration in order to get the maximum bred-in production from your cows.
